

SE

Why choose Stikeman Elliott

Join the ranks of Stikeman Elliott, one of the most distinguished and respected corporate law firms in Greater Montréal. The firm has been named one of the best employers in Canada every year since 2009. Stikeman Elliott is always seeking to recruit the best and the brightest. The Montréal office currently has an opening for a

Legal Translator

Job description: The successful candidate will be in charge of translating various legal, financial and administrative documents from English to French.

Immediate report: The Legal Translator will report to the Manager, Linguistic Services.

Education and experience requirements:

- University degree in translation;
- Law degree would be an asset;
- 5 to 7 years of relevant experience as a translator;
- Previous experience in a law or accounting firm would be an asset.

Qualifications:

- Impeccable command of French and English;
- Autonomous and capable of managing priorities;
- Strong organizational skills;
- Team spirit;
- Attention to detail and superior intellectual curiosity.

Salary and benefits:

- Full-time telework with regular visits to the Montréal office;
- Computer equipment and technical support provided;
- Salary commensurate with experience;
- Competitive annual salary review;
- Full range of benefits.

If you wish to apply, please click here.

Stikeman Elliott

